

Key stage 2 English grammar, punctuation and spelling

PAPER 004

1. What a shock we got when the door flew open...

What is the correct term for the punctuation mark that ends the sentence above? _____

2. Underline the relative clauses in these sentences.
A relative pronoun attaches the relative clause to the main clause. A relative clause is preceded by a noun.

1. Here's the book that you borrowed from me.
2. I saw the girl who is joining our class next week.
3. The book that you lent me is on the table.
4. Paris, which is the capital of France, is a beautiful city.
5. Leo, who plays tennis very well, is joining our tennis club.

3. Add the hyphens where necessary to make compound adjectives.

1. My auntie has adopted a six year old cat.
2. Snakes are cold blooded creatures.
3. Rudolph is the red nosed reindeer.
4. What a well behaved dog Buster is.
5. The new baby has forget me not blue eyes.

4. In this passage, underline all the verbs in the present perfect progressive.

Delphine is from France. She has been living in London for two years. She has been attending the International School. She enjoys learning English. She has been studying the language since she was eight years old. She is almost fluent in English now.

5. Tick one box in each row to show if the underlined conjunction is a subordinating conjunction or a co-ordinating conjunction.
Remember – FANBOYS = co-ordinating conjunction

	Subordinating conjunction	co-ordinating conjunction
I don't like broccoli but I love sprouts.
We'll go there if we have enough time.
It started to snow, so we played outside.
Since you asked politely, I'll tell you.
You can take the penalty or I will take it.

6. Replace the underlined words in the sentence below with their expanded forms.

We're late, so we'd better get a move on.

7. Replace the underlined word or words in each sentence with the correct possessive pronoun.

- 1) These seats belong to us. They're _____.
- 2) I think that's my book. Yes, it's _____.
- 3) That's Leo and Amy's cat. Yes, it's _____.

8. Change the underlined nouns to the plural form.

- (a) I saw the wolf in the forest.
- (b) I can see the child over there.
- (c) Don't touch the tomato.
- (d) Listen to the goose!

9. Place the commas in the correct places in these sentences.

- (a) Please answer the phone for me Sally.
- (b) I'd like chips an egg sausages but no peas.
- (c) Fortunately Barcelona scored in the last minute.
- (d) It's rather chilly today isn't it?
- (e) We ran all the way. However we missed the bus.

10. The word bear has more than one meaning.

Write two sentences that show two different meanings of the word.